

24th Annual
Wissahickon Birdathon
May 11 & 12, 2018

Welcome birders, old and new!

Join a team or create your own and bird the Wissahickon Watershed in a friendly two-day competition to identify as many bird species as possible.

- Birders pay a $35 per person registration fee, which includes a t-shirt and two meals.
- Teams collect pledges for WVWA to support our bird conservation program.

Birders of all ages and skill levels are encouraged to join the fun, bird as much or as little as you choose and enjoy the camaraderie of your fellow birders.

2018 Birdathon Pledge Form

The 24th annual Wissahickon Birdathon will take place on May 11 & 12. Teams collect pledges to support WVWA's efforts to preserve and restore habitat for birds and all wildlife. There are three ways in which you can support bird conservation in the Wissahickon Watershed:

1. Visit us on the web at wvwa.org/birdathon to make a one-time donation in support of the event or to a specific team.
2. Mail a check payable to "WVWA" for a one-time donation of $_____. Please write "Birdathon" or the name of a specific Birdathon team in the memo line and mail it with this form to the address above.
3. Make a per-species pledge and we will contact you after the total number of species seen is counted! Please indicate your pledge per species and mail this form to the address above. Per-species pledges must be received by May 9, 2018.

Thank you!

In past years, Birdathon teams identified over 120 species in two days!

How many species do you think they will count this year?

Guess correctly for your chance to win a $100 Gift Card from Wild Birds Unlimited in Dresher!

I guess that from May 11 – 12 the WVWA Birdathon teams will identify a total of _____ species.
